

RE: Question, please...

Tuesday, December 1, 2009 9:21 AM

From: SJLConn@claretians.org

Dear Deli,

Thank you for your email, the Claretians are always grateful to hear from you who share our devotion to St. Jude.

The encased statue of the Holy Infant of Prague is not at the National Shrine of St. Jude.

None of the St. Jude Shrines in the United States are affiliated with each other. The National Shrine of St. Jude in Chicago, Illinois, founded by the Claretians, is the only St. Jude Shrine with the title "National Shrine" since it is the original or "Mother" Shrine of devotion to St. Jude in the United States.

I encourage you to visit the National Shrine of St. Jude website at www.shrineofstjude.org again soon. Please know that the Claretians pray with and for you each day. May God bless you.

Father Mark Brummel, C.M.F.
Director, St. Jude League

From: Deli Lanoux, Ed.D.

Sent: Friday, November 27, 2009 11:11 AM

To: stjudeleagueconnection

Subject: Question, please...

Hello!

I'd like to know, please, which of the two Chicago shrines to St. Jude has an encased statue of the Holy Infant of Prague.

Thanks sooo much!

Deli

<http://flandin505.wordpress.com/2009/10/24/st-anthony-claret/>