Dear Father Robert,

Thank you for all the work you and the other Dominican priests do! Please know that I very much appreciate... and enjoy... your “daily inspiration” online.

At this time, I’m glad to renew the Memorial Candle for our seventeen-year-old granddaughter, Acacia. The candle means a great deal to me because I’m familiar with both your shrine and the gift shop.

I visited January 4, 2004, at which time my baby granddaughter, Kylie... Acacia-Darling’s younger sister... was in the hospital. I received great consolation there that morning, something that I’ll never forget.

My only request... if it’s possible... is that I’d like to have a photo of the Holy Infant of Prague that’s in back of the church. Maybe someone can do me the favor of taking it with a digital camera and emailing it to me? You have no idea how much I’d treasure it!

August, 1998, the younger of our two sons and I made a pilgrimage to Our Lady of Victory Church in Prague, Czechoslovakia. What an absolutely incredible time! And, as you can imagine, I’m quite devoted to the Infant.

At this time, I’ve included two posts... “St. Anthony Claret” and “St. Jude novena”... from my personal blog for you to know what the shrine means to me.

Thank you again for all you do for all of us!

God bless y’all infinitely much!

Hugsss and much love,
just ME again... Deli

S.A.G.
